Discussed list of items to be fixed in Municipal Building

Committeeman Owens spoke to Salem City our Sewer Operator about some changes to the contract we will renew soon. He asked the other committee members if they wanted everyday inspections or 4 days a week at the pump stations. The committee members want to know what the reductions in price would be and discussed having the road department do a couple days.

Committeeman Owens said the sink hole on Lake Avenue is not that bad and we should have the road department look at it.

The committee discussed the County wide school system study
