Committeeman Owens suggested we do Brown Road and use Lake Avenue phase II for the secondary. The other committee members agreed.

Mayor Sperry told Lieutenant Quirk there was a complaint on the Dewitt property about 4 wheelers, noise and the State police are not responding. Lieutenant Quirk said unless it is against what the ordinance says they are a loud to make noise on their property. Mayor Sperry also said they are shooting while riding the 4 wheelers. Mayor Sperry also asked Lieutenant Quirk about a parking issue at Marty's Crabs. She was called by a few residents who complained that the patrons of Marty's crabs were parking up and down the highway. Marty's Crabs had marked out an area so people would practice safe distancing but that made the parking an issue. Lieutenant Quirk said he would reach out to them but everyone needs to work together in this difficult time.

Mayor Sperry asked the Solicitor Trunk if there is an accident is the township liable. Solicitor Trunk said as long as we are being responsible it should be fine.
