PUBLIC SESSION

The Mayor asked Lt. Quirk about the shooting at Hudocks. Lt. Quirk said it was a highly unusual event and the victim was the target not just random. Committeeman Owens asked him if he had received any noise complaints. Lt. Quirk said no not really but new who Owens was referring to. Deputy Mayor Hannagan asked if there were any other negative things going on in town and Lt. Quirk said no other issues.

The Mayor said Clean Communities Day went well and would like to do another in the spring.

Mike Sites asked the committee if there was any progress on a new fire truck. The Mayor replied that it is still on the list and we are trying to find a way to afford it. The Mayor did ask Mike Sites if they could look into a cheaper truck or a used one.

There being no further business motion to adjourn at 7:27pm
